Electric Vehicles, Right Here, Right Now!

With one in every 12 cars purchased now electric, our panel looks at the EV Revolution in all its guises. The myths, the reality, what's driving growth and reasons why EV represent the present and not simply the far-off future.

Peter Brill

Peter has worked in motoring and motorsport throughout his career, including with Toyota, Mobil1, Hyundai, Kia and Bimota Motorcycles with his final corporate role as Head of Public Relations for RAC Motoring Services. In 2002 he set-up his own content marketing consultancy – Net.Mentor Ltd. Peter is passionate about all-things wheeled and winged and has recently joined the swelling ranks of electric vehicle owners as the proud owner of a Renault Zoe.
